

Social Justice at The College of Saint Rose has its historical roots with our Sisters of Saint Joseph.

On this week of social justice we celebrate our excellence, and honor our heritage.

Sunday, March 17th - 6:30 PM
Sisters of St. Joseph Founders' Mass at St. Vincent's Church

Heritage Celebrating Activities:

Monday – Celebrate our Excellence!

Tuesday – Wish a Happy
Saint Joseph's Day to our Sisters!
End the day by joining others in prayer for the many needs in our world.

Wednesday – Show your pride, wear Saint Rose Gear!
What can you fast from today to remember those with so much less than we have?

Thursday – the winner of the Heritage quiz announced at lunch.

Monday, March 18th -

Housing Rally - NY State Capitol Stand up and shout out for decent living conditions for all!
10:45am – 12:30pm
Buses leave from Lima lot.

LGBTQ – POC:

The impact of homelessness on those who are LGBTQ, and also people of color.

3:00pm, The Sanctuary

Stories of Homelessness, Strength and Hope

Dinner and conversation with homeless individuals from Capital City Rescue Mission 4:30- 5:45pm, The Commuter Lounge

SJW Opening Ceremony
6:00pm, Campus Green

Tunnel of Oppression

An interactive experience to understand the lives of those who are Refugees and Immigrants
7:00pm, Main Lounge

“The Throwaways” –

A FREE screening of the documentary film made here in Albany about poverty and homelessness.
Conversation with film-makers afterwards.
8:00pm, The Sanctuary

Tuesday, March 19th

100 Acts of Kindness

Help deliver 100 Roses to elderly in local nursing homes.

1:00pm-3:00pm, Meet at The Sanctuary

GAS LAND – A film about natural gas drilling on U.S. communities – hydro-fracking, what is it and why does it matter?
3:30pm, The Sanctuary

Fill Their Bowls Dinner & Cook-Off

A food & fun event to benefit the Homeless Action Committee
4:30pm-6:00pm, Main Lounge

Stretch for Social Justice

Free Yoga
8:00pm, The Sanctuary

Prayers to Re-Make a New World

Prayers from multiple faith perspectives and meditation – for peace, justice, & freedom from hunger.

10:00pm, The Sanctuary

Wednesday, March 20th

Turning Tables: Come see how Real Authentic Conversations Enlighten
12:00-1:15pm, Touhey Forum (Lally)

When Helping Hurts:
The Social Injustice
of Psychiatric Medications
4:30 pm, Touhey Forum (Lally)

Human Trafficking
What does it mean? What Can We Do?
6:00pm, The Library Computer Lab

You Taught It, But Did They Learn It?
Assessment as a Tool for Closing the Achievement Gap
Presented by the School of Education
7:15pm. Touhey Forum (Lally)

"Waste Land"
A film about a community of people living in a garbage dump, and how an artist impacts the lives of many.
8:00pm, The Sanctuary

Thursday, March 21st

Teaching Acceptance Through Awareness & Action
A student-made documentary film.
A collection of conversations with people about equality in education.
Presented by The School of Education
9:30-11:00am, Touhey Forum (Lally)

– Visiting Day –
On Children With Family Members in Prison
School of Education
11:15am-1:00pm – The Sanctuary

Adventure to the Radix Take a trip to hear about cutting edge local sustainability efforts
1:00pm, Meet at The Sanctuary

Taking A Chance On God
A documentary film about one priest's efforts to support the LGBTQ community in the Catholic Church.
Afterwards, converse with the film-maker.
2:00pm, Albertus Hall 305

Rhythms for RISSE
A Benefit to support the people at our local refugee and immigrant center - RISSE.
6:15pm – Silent Auction
7:00pm – Concert
Massry Recital Hall

Frequency North
Kaya Oakes & David Yezzi
7:30pm, The Sanctuary

Friday, March 22nd

WANTED: jeans and flip flops!!
We are collecting these items as a means of empowerment for women in India escaping trafficking situations.
All Day, Campus Center

Poetry Slam
open mic opener– to the 7pm play
6:00pm, The Sanctuary

“Laramie Project” -
The celebrated and staged reading of how LGBTQ prejudice became violent and a landmark moment for LGBTQ rights.
7:00pm, The Sanctuary

Closing Event: SUPERMARKET SWEEP!!
An SJW Game Show!
Get your Team Together!
This event will benefit the Interfaith Partnership for the Homeless
9:00pm, Meet at The Sanctuary

For information on Social Justice Week community service experiences go to facebook.com/SaintRoseCommunityService

For General Social Justice Week Information:

facebook.com/SaintRoseSocialJusticeWeek