Academic Grievance Procedure

To resolve an academic grievance, the student should follow this procedure:

1. A student with a grievance must first identify the grievance and discuss the matter at issue with the faculty member who is the party to the grievance.
2. If no resolution of the grievance was achieved during that first step, then, second, the student must request, in writing, a meeting between him/herself, the chair of the relevant department and the faculty member who is party to the grievance. The student must request this meeting within one semester following the last day of the semester within which the grievance occurred. (College vacations are not included in this time frame.) In the written statement, the student will make clear to the department chair that there is a grievance matter, and that the issue was unresolved in a meeting with the faculty member. The meeting will be set by the department chair for within two weeks of receiving the written request. At this meeting, the grievance issue(s) must be identified. The department chair will facilitate an attempt to resolve the grievance.
3. If no resolution of the grievance is achieved at the second step, the student may make a request for a formal hearing of the grievance by the Academic Grievance Committee. The request must be in writing and presented to the Chair of the Academic Grievance Committee within two weeks of the meeting between the faculty member and department chair. A detailed statement with supporting evidence of the facts must accompany the hearing request.

The Committee's recommendations, in writing and within ten days of the formal hearing, will be forwarded for final deposition to the Dean. The Dean will notify all parties concerned, in writing, of his/her decision and the recommendations of the Committee.

The Academic Grievance Board will be comprised of four faculty representatives elected by each of the four schools and three students selected by the Student Association which should keep in mind the fact that a traditional, non-traditional and graduate student should be included. Two alternate students will also be selected by the Student Association annually. No person on the Academic Grievance Board shall hear his/her own complaint. Confidentiality must be maintained at all times. The academic grievance procedure is a strictly internal process. Lawyers may not participate in meetings involving academic grievances.
