Change In Income Disclaimer

The King understands that the challenges brought on by COVID-19 may have impacted your family's current income. You need to file the 2024 - 2025 FAFSA using your 2022 federal tax information. However, after filing the FAFSA, you can contact the financial aid offices of where you are applying to discuss your options. You may need to submit additional information to reflect the changes in your family's income, and they may be able to adjust your financial information on the FAFSA to secure you additional funding.
